

SOCIETY

THE Outdoor Circle celebrated its fifth birthday today by giving a "stunt" luncheon on the Roof Garden of the Young Hotel.

The tables, under the direction of Mrs. Thomas J. King and her able assistants, were very beautifully decorated with every shade of hibiscus, the flower of the Outdoor Circle, and this was the only flower used to decorate the birthday luncheon cloths.

Mrs. Lorrin A. Thurston, the club's new president, in a few well-chosen words, welcomed the members. No "stunts" or songs were attempted during the luncheon but immediately coffee was served the guests seated furthest away drew up their chairs into the alleys near the first table and then an hour of fun followed.

The first number on the program was an instrumental quartet selection in which Mrs. A. Gignoux represented rubish; Mrs. St. C. Sayres was the sandwich lady; Mrs. I. Scharlin represented the much-despised picket fence, and Mrs. Alexander Robertson was a bug of the garden pest variety. Their act caused huge merriment and each one was loudly applauded.

"Madame Titterzini" on a tour of Lani, Kahoolawe and en route to Midway enthralled the guests with her singing accompanied by Miss Frank Howell, who played a wonderful violin obligato. Mrs. L. E. Thayer accompanied Madame Titterzini, who in real life is Mrs. Charles Crane. The number was intensely funny, as it was a "take-off" on a lot of the members. It was written by Mrs. I. M. Cox and read by Miss Thelma Murphy, and was called "Joss Stuffed."

The "Solid Silver Quartet" was very good, singing the song dedicated to the Outdoor Circle, words by Mr. Will Sablin, music by Mr. A. Cunha. A couple of extra verses to fit the occasion were written by Mrs. A. Lewis, Jr. The four ladies who were in the quartet were Mrs. Frank Atherton, Mrs. Edwin D. Kilbourne, Miss Alice Hopper and Miss Nora Sturgeon.

The junior members then gave their stunt, that of "decorating a billboard which was immediately pulled down by Mrs. A. N. Campbell.

Then came the presentation to the retiring president, Mrs. Cox was toast mistress and in her usual clever way saw not a dull moment was experienced.

The new president, Mrs. Thurston, in a few happy words presented Mrs. P. J. Lowrey, the retiring president, in the name of every member of the circle, with a very handsome pair of Japanese gate lions in stone, to be set just in front of the entrance to the beautiful Nimitz home of the Lowreys.

Mrs. Carolyn Churchman, a visitor and member of the circle, favored the audience with a song which was a pleasure indeed.

About 100 guests enjoyed this annual affair. The Roof Garden was crowded with guests, who even after the program were very loath to go.

Those attending the luncheon were Mrs. F. J. Lowrey, Mrs. L. A. Thurston, Mrs. A. J. Campbell, Mrs. I. M. Cox, Mrs. B. R. Young, Mrs. A. N. Campbell, Mrs. C. W. Ashford, Mrs. C. C. von Hamm, Mrs. A. MR. CHARLES HERBERT HONORS MR. ABRAHAM GURNEY
Mr. Charles Herbert was host at dinner on Saturday evening at a dinner honoring Mr. Abraham Gurney of Hilo, whose 18th birthday it was. The table was very pretty with a silver bowl filled with red Transvaal daisies and lace fern. Floating gray, yellow and red balloons moved noiselessly about the dining room and caused a deal of merriment. The evening was happily spent. Mr. Herbert's guests were Miss Kathryn Blake, Miss Gertrude Blake, Mrs. Rhoda Ballentyne, Miss Marian Paris, Miss Margaret Austin, Mr. Everett Holmes, Mr. Sanford Dole Wood, Mr. James Rothschild and Mr. Abraham Gurney, the guest of honor.

INFORMAL DANCE GIVEN BY THE G. R. CLUB
The G. R. Club entertained a number of its friends on Saturday evening, January 13, at the home of H. Nielsen, one of its members. The rooms were decorated in the club colors of crimson and gold. A huge American flag was draped on the wall, which made a pretty background for the merry dancers. Dancing was enjoyed until a late hour. Refreshments were served during the evening.

Those present were Mrs. J. E. Nielsen, Mrs. Alexander Nielsen, Mrs. Rowland Smith, Misses G. Jensen, Edith Bull, Laura Coming-Smith, Maud Coming-Smith, Vera Harris, Thelma Harris, Ome Haley, Margaret Rowat, Zella Rowat, Elinor Hills, Margaret Keppeler, Thelma Auerbach, Messrs. H. Nielsen, P. TEA-DANSANT
Today Miss Helen Waterhouse is celebrating her 16th birthday. Her mother planned a very pleasant surprise for her by telling her she would take her to Laniaka for tea. Upon arrival a crowd of her friends came in and gave her the day's greetings. A huge birthday cake was one of the attractions of the afternoon. The friends invited by Mrs. Waterhouse in Helen's honor were Kealoa Waterhouse, Laura Pratt, Miriam Sinclair, Edna Ferguson, Patty Waterhouse, Elizabeth Waterhouse, Kath von Holt, Peggy Wilder, Martha Cooke, Margaret Pratt, Gwendolyn Waterhouse, Robert Simonton, "Buster" Brown, Alata Wilder, Dermont Stanley, Tom Singlehurst, Newton Peck, Edwin Benner, Jr., Budley Pratt and Ernest Gray. The young folks danced and made merry all afternoon.

MRS. E. E. CONANT GIVES A SEWING TEA
Mrs. E. E. Conant was hostess at a sewing tea on Thursday afternoon at her apartments at the Donna Hotel. The rooms were very attractive with baskets of spicy red carnations and lace fern. After an hour at plying their needles delicious refreshments were served. About 18 guests were bidden.

CAPT. AND MRS. DANIEL GIENTY ENTERTAIN
Capt. and Mrs. Daniel H. Gienty gave a box party for ten guests at the Peggy Center concert Tuesday evening. After the concert Capt. and Mrs. Gienty took their guests to Heine's for supper and dancing. Their table was very prettily decorated with Shasta daisies and pink roses.

Capt. and Mrs. Gienty's guests were Col. and Mrs. James McKee, Capt. and Mrs. John K. Herr, Capt. and Mrs. James Gallogly and Capt. and Mrs. Jack Hayes.

MRS. J. F. C. HAGENS A LUNCHEON HOSTESS
Mrs. J. F. C. Hagens entertained some 12 guests on Friday at her peninsula home at a bridge luncheon.

MRS. ERNEST WATERHOUSE'S LUNCHEON
Mrs. Ernest Waterhouse entertained with a luncheon on Saturday of last week. Brilliant red gladioli made a most attractive centerpiece. The guests enjoyed the singing of the club during the afternoon. Mrs. Waterhouse's guests were Mrs. Gideon van Poole, Mrs. Grafton Beall, Mrs. Gerrit Wilder, Mrs. Ismay Stubbs, Mrs. Arthur M. Brown, Mrs. Ambrose Patterson, Mrs. Arthur Rice, Mrs. Alexander G. Hawes.

MRS. R. I. LILLIE ENTERTAINS

A HAWAIIAN SUPPER AT THE DONNA

The guests at The Donna hotel were given a Hawaiian dinner on Wednesday of this week by Mrs. McCarthy. The table was very pretty, lighted candles with pink shades were attractive, while lying flat on the table were the various shades of red hibiscus and lace fern. A Hawaiian quintet played during the dinner hour for the dance that followed. One hundred and three guests sat down and enjoyed fully the Hawaiian feast. Many of the guests at The Donna are people who have come back regularly every winter for the past six years. Among those who entertained were Lieut. and Mrs. Kirk, U. S. N., Miss U. Sanborn, Mrs. Holton, Miss Lou Clark, Miss Thewlis, Miss Louise McCarthy, Miss Gladys Rickard, Mrs. Berkowitz and Mrs. Mayo.

THE MILLS CLUB MEETING

The Mills Club of Honolulu, with Mrs. A. J. Campbell as hostess, met on Thursday afternoon. After a short business meeting a social hour was enjoyed. Three guests of honor were present, Mrs. Ralston of Oakland, Mrs. Coleman and Miss Asline. Mrs. James Lewis sang very beautifully several songs and Miss Peggy Campbell played the piano in a way to delight the audience. Mills Club keeps a Hawaiian girl at the college and is now working on a scholarship to further its splendid work.

THE COLONIAL HOTEL

The Colonial Hotel management is planning a dancing party for the evening of January 31 to honor the Masonia and Great Northern passengers. The hotel is filled with tourists, and on Wednesday evening Mr. Whitbeck gave them a very pleasant entertainment, by showing lantern slides of everyone of the islands and their most interesting spots.

CHINESE RUGS AND TAPESTRIES AT LANIAKEA

Fine old Chinese rugs and tapestries, woven in the Dynasty of Chien Lung, 1732-1795, are shown in the art exhibit given by Miss Dorothy True at 1041 Alakea street, for the San Francisco firms of Vickery, Atkins & Torrey. The etchings and Japanese prints likewise are well worth a visit by those who seek the unusual in art and decoration. The exhibition will continue to February 20.—Adv.
